

Kim Rosen

spoken poetry

Saved by a Poem: The Transformative Power of Words

poetry, music and inspiration with Kim Rosen to celebrate her new book!!

Nov. 5, 7:30pm, $10.
THE ALTON MILL
1402 Queen St. West, Alton, ON
(enter from Amelia St.)

Contact: BookLore
(519) 942-3830
or booklore@bellnet.ca

In these times of global and personal uncertainty, why turn to poetry?

Kim Rosen has touched listeners far and wide with poetry's power to awaken, inspire, and heal. She reveals, through an elegant weaving of mystical poems, insight, and music, that poetry is the language of the soul, especially needed in these times of change and challenge. This is an evening to melt the heart, open the mind and set the body dancing!

Kim Rosen, MFA, is a spiritual teacher, spoken-word artist, and poet. She is the author of Saved by a Poem: The Transformative Power of Words (Hay House, October, 2009) www.kimrosen.net.